

SATISFACTION OF THESIS SUPERVISORS WITH DOCTORAL STUDIES .

In order to find out your opinion about your doctoral studies, below are a series of questions for you to express your level of satisfaction on a scale from 1 (very dissatisfied) to 5 (very satisfied).

1. DOCTORAL PROGRAMME.

1. Work of the coordinator of the doctoral programme.
2. Public information about the programme (website).
3. Material resources and services available for the development of the doctoral programme.
4. Specific training activities organised by the doctoral programme for doctoral students.
5. International collaborations maintained by the doctoral programme and their impact on it.

2. DOCTORAL STUDENTS.

6. Motivation of doctoral students.
7. Adjustment of the profile of doctoral students to the doctoral programme.
8. Adequacy of the training complements assigned to doctoral students by the Academic Committee of the doctoral programme.
9. System of contracts, scholarships and grants for doctoral students.
10. Learning outcomes obtained by doctoral students.
11. Relationship established with the doctoral student.

3. INFORMATION AND MANAGEMENT.

12. Information on administrative processes.
13. Management of the procedures inherent to the processing of doctoral theses.
14. Annual assessment and monitoring system for doctoral students.

4. DOCTORAL SCHOOL.

15. Smooth relations with the administrative section of the School.
16. Smooth relations with the school management.
17. Training offer of transversal activities.
18. Accessibility of doctoral information and its dissemination (School website, communication channels, social networks, etc.).

5. OVERALL SATISFACTION.

19. Workload involved in the doctorate.
20. Recognition of their activity as thesis supervisor or tutor.
21. Overall satisfaction with the doctoral programme.
22. Overall satisfaction with the Doctoral School.
23. Positive highlights (Open-ended question)
24. Aspects that could be improved (open-ended question)